FORMER ASYLUM INMATE

Again Adjudged Insane But Escapes From Officers.

Wiley Hunt, a well-to-do Warren county farmer, was adjudged of unsound mind by a jury at Bowling Green Friday and ordered sent to the asylum here. Hunt was placed on the train, but jumped from the platform of the car and ran to a livery stable, where he secured a horse and buggy and made his escape, going home.

He was in the asylum several years ago, and at that time came to his own accord, saying that he was crazy and wanted to go to the asylum. He was tried, adjudged a lunatic and given a copy of the inquest, when he came to Hopkinsville alone, presented the papers and was admitted to the institution. He was discharged later as cured and it was only recently that his dementia returned.

Deceased was a member of the Methodist church. She professed sanctification about ten years ago at a camp meeting at Kuttawa, Ky. She was a woman much esteemed by a wide circle of friends and her demise causes much sorrow.

Funeral services were held Sunday morning and the interment took place in the family burying ground.

CHANGE OF TIME

For Chicago-Florida Limited Passing Through This City.

A new time card went into effect on the Clarksville and Gracey division of the L. & N. yesterday. Under the new schedule the train will leave Gracey at 7:15 a. m., arriving at Clarksville at 10 o'clock. Returning the train will leave the latter place at 3 p. m., and will arrive at Gracey at 5:45. SHOOTING IN TRIGG.

James Bush Probably Fatally Wounds Bill Etheridge.

James Bush shot and probably fatally wounded Bill Etheridge near Trigg Furnace, Friday, says a special to the Cincinnati Enquirer. Mrs. Bush had gone to the stable after some eggs when Etheridge, who was boarding there, made an assault upon her, it is alleged. She screamed and Mr. Bush came to her assistance. As Etheridge was fleeing he shot him. The entire load took effect in his neck. Bush came to Cadis and surrendered.

Pains in the Stomach.

Like toothache, this is not a dangerous, but a decidedly unpleasant ailment. Persons who are subject to attacks of it will be pleased to know that prompt relief may be had by taking a dose or two of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This remedy is equally valuable for children and when reduced with water and sweetened is pleasant to take. For

Don't Worry.

This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least.
On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by C. K. Wiley, druggist.

Remarkable Cure of Croup.

A LITTLE BOY'S LIFE SAVED.
I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
I saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough.
I bought a bottle of it from A. E.
Steele of Godwin, S. C., and when my little boy was four years old he caught cold. He was very ill and could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the plegion out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine my boy would not be on earth today.—JOHN DEMONT, in wood, Iowa. For sale by C. K.

INTERESTING STORY TOLD

Of Well known Author and Producer of Plays.

An interesting story is told about Mr. Lincoln J. Carter, the well known author and producer of plays. During the first production of his latest success "The 11th Hour" the leading man was suddenly taken ill and it involved upon Mr. Carter to fill the part. The principal sensation of "The 11th Hour" is the last act, the scene being the house of a millionaire, prominent in Chicago. It seems this house has been rented by Benjamin Fowler, who is the villain in the piece, and here he has taken Susan Hackett and proposes to marry her. While engaged in the action of one thing or another during the act he learns that the hero, Joe Manley has escaped from his restraint, and is coming to the house.

In about two minutes Joe Manley and Benjamin Fowler are engaged in a terrific struggle, and Mr. Carter, as the hero rose supremely to the occasion. The gorgeous apartment furnished grandly with a magnificent display of bric a brac, bric a brac, and etc., in the wild struggle is entirely demolished. When the customary actor is playing the part the fight is a cleverly constructed trick, but Mr. Carter appearing for the occasion only, quite forgot himself. After having cleared the apartment out, he seized the person of the villain and unceremoniously pounded him, by the time he had blackened his eye, the audience had risen as one man and the policeman in the back of the house began to look uneasy. Finally just as he was about to hit the villain one good blow for luck the villain's character in the piece appeared and caused him to desist. The curtain went down amidst general enthusiasm and the news of the villain had been properly dumped spread all over Chicago and was the best advertisement Mr. Carter could have desired.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Per-gusa, Pa., Miss Letitia, and Per-gusa get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days.
The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by C. K. Wiley, Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first I awoke, I felt a troublesome cough, a phlegm, which produces a cough, and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to persons, needing a medicine for throat or lung troubles." Price

The peculiar cough which indicates croup, is usually well known to the mothers of croupy children.
No time should be lost in the treatment of it, and for this purpose medicine has received more universal approval than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Do not waste valuable time in experimenting with untried remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended, but give this medicine as directed and all symptoms of croup will quickly disappear. For sale by C.

MAKTIAS ESCORT

Meets Jack S. Moore, of Train Robbery Fame at Fulton.

Jack S. Moore, one of the victims of the Louisville & Nashville railroad train robbery near South Louisville Monday, arrived in Fulton last night. He had notified friends by telegraph that he would be here in the interest of his employers, the Hanover Life Insurance company and they fixed up a little surprise for him.

At the instance of C. F. Dabake and Clint Foster a guard was armed and organized and marched to the depot to be ready to meet him and escort the broken-hearted "Jack" to Fulton hastily.

The plans of the guard were carried out without a hitch, and in addition to this numerous and diverse weapons of offense and defence were presented to him upon his arrival.

After he had told and retold the story until no incident had been omitted the party attended "A Poor Relation" at the Vendome, after which a delightful supper, served by Dabake, was partaken of.

Those who attended were: J. S. Moore, Jim Miller, Clint Foster, Joe Patterson and C. F. Dabake. It was a most enjoyable affair. Fulton Leader.

Old Walnut Stumps.

God walnut timber has about disappeared from this section, but on many farms there are old stumps, and the owners of the same will probably read the following with interest:

"Old walnut stumps are on a boom throughout Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania. Stumps that have remained for years and were regarded as worthless are now eagerly sought after a price that seem almost fabulous. The uglier, knottier and more unsightly the stump the more it will bring. The stump of a walnut tree that was cut several years ago brought more money than the whole tree. It is stated that the stumps are made into veneering material and used in manufacture of high grade furniture."

The January number of Scribner's Magazine, which marks the beginning of its 33d volume, contains two of the notable features of the coming year. It is seldom that the opportunity is offered to present the brilliant letters of a woman who has filled the night school and official positions at the courts of Europe. The letters of Madame Waddington, wife of the eminent French Ambassador, M. William Waddington, begin in this number, with entertaining and witty accounts of the English court in the Eighties. Madame Waddington's observations have the greater value to American readers because she is an American, the daughter of a President of Columbia College and the granddaughter of Rufus King, who was American Minister to England. These letters were written to her relatives in this country at the very time in which the events described were fresh in her memory. They are therefore spontaneous, natural, and unconventionally bright. The illustrations are from portraits and other pictures in Madame Waddington's own collection.

Turkeys In Turkey.

A writer in Our Dumb Animals says:

An observation made by the writer of "Pages from a Private Diary" may interest your readers. He says: "When he was in Turkey he saw a man feeding his turkeys and a flock of wild turkeys came down to feed with them. The man drove them into a shed. 'What shall you do with them?' asked my friend, 'kill them.' 'Kill them?' said the man; 'they are my guests. In the morning I shall feed them and let them go.'"

It is all to know that we can learn lessons in humanity even from "The Turk."

REBINDING OLD BOOKS.

A Recent Copyright Decision Allows a Certain Custom.

A curious decision of the rights to reprint books which have expired the copyright of copyright, was recently given by the United States Supreme Court in the case of the American Book Company. The court announced that the publisher of a book which has expired the copyright of the publisher is not entitled to reprint the book. The court in its ruling gave no reason for its decision, but it is thought that the court was influenced by the fact that the American Book Company have complained that the defendants were reprinting old books on which they owned the copyright. They were then reprinted and sold. The court in its decision says: "We think that, so far as respects the copyright laws of the United States, no legal right of the publisher was invaded by so doing. What was done was merely the restoration of the books to their original condition when sold by the publisher, or so nearly as could be done."

National Magazine.

Edward Markham and Admiral Schley lead the list of contributors to the January National Magazine. The Admiral writes of The Sailor's Christmas at Sea. Fine full page portraits of Congressman Cannon, the next Speaker, and of Senators Spooner, Clapp, Heitfield and Hawley are among the illustrations of Joe Mitchell Chappell's Affairs at Washington. S. Glen Andrus tells how Americans are putting hundreds of millions into Mexican agriculture and how hundreds of thousands of Americans can acquire homes there. Capt. Arthur McGraw presents the most striking and original plan for reaching the North Pole that has ever been published. George E. Hunt tells the story of Indianapolis, America's largest inland city. Dr. A. E. Winslip exploits the wonderful educational philanthropy of Senator Stout at Menominee, Wisconsin. Ralph Berggren discusses the Gabriele D'Annunzio. Frank Putnam, in Note and Comment, touches on labor problems, new books, the new status of the negro South, and the Venezuelan affair. C. A. Lushow, writing from Berlin, surveys The Month in Europe. Robert B. Armstrong, secretary to the Secretary of the Treasury, contributes a quickening discussion of the Shrinking of the Earth through the agencies of commerce and invention. Carrie Hunt Latra, Sophie Hammond, James Sall Naylor, Leavenworth Macnab and Lytle O. Harris are the story tellers. The National's stories are always excellent. The poems are by Frederick Lawrence Knowles, Sam Walter Foss, Mary N. Hobart and Edward L. Peterson. The National's poetry is quoted everywhere.

COLD WINTER WEATHER

AGGRAVATES CATARRH.

Fortify the System With Peruna and No One Need Fear Coughs, Colds, or Catarrh.

Winter is here. The nights are long and cold. The days are short and changeable in temperature. Cold creeps in at every crevice and daunts occur in spite of the utmost vigilance. Very few remain safe from climatic diseases. Colds soon develop into chronic catarrh. A cough rapidly becomes consumption. La grippe undermines the system dangerously. Influenza leaves injuries to head and throat hard to remove. All these things people strive in vain to guard themselves against. How best can they do it?

First, get some Peruna. Second, send to the Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio, for a free copy of Dr. Hartman's latest book on the climatic diseases of winter. This book in plain and direct language tells exactly what to do in all the liabilities and emergencies resulting from wintry weather. If any point is doubtful, if the book does not explain fully, a letter to Dr. Hartman will receive a prompt answer free of charge.

What untold misery this would have if everyone would heed this advice. Peruna cures a cold quicker than any medicine in the world. Peruna is a sure cough cure. Peruna is the best if not the only internal remedy for catarrh yet devised. Peruna cures la grippe. A book of testimonials sent free.

MAYOR HEAD

Of Nashville to Go After Telephone Monopoly.

The great monopoly, the Cumberland Telephone company, has a firm hold on Nashville, but if Mayor Head is enabled to carry out his idea, Nashville will own a telephone system of its own, and if it proves as successful as its other public utilities, the citizens will have additional cause for congratulation. At this time it is claimed that the Cumberland charges from $2 to $7 for telephones, and that it gives unsatisfactory services. When an independent company desired a franchise, another sprang up with and behind the scheme, it was squelched, as the Cumberland was suspected to be behind the scheme, and the matter comes before the legislature next sitting. The city proposes to put in a conduit system in order to do away with overhead wires.—Exchange.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are weak or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidneys.

Kidney trouble. Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It is to be considered that only uric acid troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonder—cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail simply by sending this paper with your name, age, occupation, and the name of the nearest druggist to you. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Ringwood, N. J., on every bottle.
